"Shall old acquaintance be forgot
And days of Auld Lang Syne
More than two hundred Elks of Alameda county gathered around the banquet board in the local headquarters on Fourteenth street last night and with speeches, song and story celebrated the twentieth anniversary of the birth of Oakland Lodge No. 171.

The days of yore was the subject of every utterance and those who responded to call of their names by the toastmaster fittingly donned in sentimental retrospect that brought back to the plancers of the order the scenes and faces that have long since passed away.

It was a dinner of cemented brotherhood rebuilded with a foundation of reinforced concrete as it were, of those Elks who took advantage of the opportunity to attend the banquet last night, long after midnight with a remembrance that will not soon lose or allow to pass away.

HONES TOASTMASTER

W. H. Hines was the toastmaster of the evening and between the speeches made by those he called upon, instrumental and vocal selections were rendered by Frank Fowler, E. James Purcell, Fred Anderson and J. H. Wallen quartet under the leadership of James H. Choller.

The choruses of "I've Got Rings on My Fingers" and "Put On Your Old Gray Bonnet" were taken up by the guests as they were sung by the entertainers and the hall resounded throughout the evening with the lyrics of song and again such orators as Stephen J. Hayes, Justice J. R. Melvin, District Attorney W. H. Donahue and H. C. Capwell diverted from the festive strain and with deep and profound sentiment brought up the scene and festivities of the past and compared them with a total disdain to those same scenes as they are today.

MILNY A PLATINUM

A feature of the evening was the menu and an unusual feature of the menu was the "Irus Americanus (from Nevada County)." This was bear-good tender juicy brown bear and was partaken of with relish by those before whom it was set.

The appetizing part of the program was set in motion with a Manhattan cocktail (from Eureka). Following this was the Neptune's Histratus (from Eureka), which in English is crab "Salmon Henshaw" (from Lake Tahoe) was served after the crab, as was found to be trout. Then came "Cariculus Virginianus" (from Mendocino County) or venison. Roast Toulon (from right here) followed the venison, and then came the bear. The menu was completed with red white and blue ice cream followed by a cafe noir.

MANY RESPOND.

Those who responded to the calls when called by Toastmaster Hines were George W. Reed, A. T. McDonough,

Divorces in the News Today:

WIFE PUT CARBOLIC ACID IN HIS COFFEE, HUSBAND CLAIMS IN DIVORCE COURT

And, Furthermore, He Declares He Would Have Swallowed It If Relative Hadn't Interfered and Stayed Hand

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—Acting as his wife, Constance, of attempting to poison him by placing carbolic acid into his coffee; of continually nagging at him and creating quarrels with him during the four years of their married life, Arthur Allione filed suit for divorce this morning.

He sets forth in itemized form a large set of allegations against his better half, and asserts that as the crowning cruelty of their domestic life, on Tuesday while he was away at work she took away their 2-year-old boy, Milton, removed $300, with the household furniture, and secreted them where he has not been able to locate them.

He recited that on April 18, 1907, she placed the poison in his coffee and that he would have swallowed it but for the interference of one of her relatives who begged him not to drink the fluid. He thought that the other was taking his wife's part and forced her to take away the coffee. The man finally resorted to violence and spilled the deadly liquid over the floor, finally convincing him that it had been tampered with.

On December 1, 1908, he claims his wife threw an iron poker at him, and on April 15 of this year attacked him with a razor.

$100,000 Wife Brings Suit

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—Believing that her plea would best be heard by the court if placed on some other ground, and her cause for divorce presented in a manner more calculated to be seriously considered, Mrs. Fannie C. McCrary moved for a dismissal of her first action this morning preparatory to the filing of a second.

Mrs. McCrary is reported to be worth $100,000, and in her original complaint against Robert C. McCrary she makes "for a divorce on the ground of failure to provide the common necessities of life."

Continuing, she separates her own property, which consists of a lot at Third and Mission streets, and land at Emeryville in Solano and Tulare counties.

The new petition, it is asserted, will set forth the ground of desertion.

Had Revolver for Her

Superior Judge Wells has granted a final decree of divorce to Hattie Drennan of 1170 Twenty-third avenue from Robert F. Drennan, carpenter by occupation, on the charge of extreme cruelty.

The couple were married in San Jose in 1901 and lived together seven years, during which a daughter was born to them. When Mrs. Drennan left her husband the latter kept the child, and, long afterward, according to the wife's testimony, Mrs. Drennan returned home to see the little girl.

Drennan claimed she had been forced to leave him, and Drennan told the court, and ordered her to the premises. She declared she would not leave until she had seen her child, whereupon Drennan struck her a terrible blow in the face, kicked her and threw her out of the house.

Just before their separation, the wife testified, Drennan wanted to go for a walk one evening, and when Mrs. Drennan said she did not feel well enough to go out he abused her, slipped her over the head with his hand, took her waist off her back and made a roaring fire in the kitchen stove with it and other parts of her wardrobe.

Drennan always had a revolver at hand, and every once in a while he would strike terror to the heart of his wife by threatening to murder her and the child.

Threw Out His Wife

Margaret Howling has been granted a final decree of divorce from Harry Rowling, together with the custody of their minor child, on the ground of extreme cruelty.

According to the testimony in the case, which the husband did not contest, during the latter days of their marital relations, Rowling was drunk a great deal of the time and had a penchant for throwing his wife out of the house.

One night in particular, Mrs. Rowling testified, when she returned from the theater at a very late hour with her baby and found all of the doors and windows securely locked, she could not get in at all. Rowling was inside, but refused to grant her admittance and she was forced to take lodgings for the night for herself and baby in a rooming house on San Pablo avenue.

Used Lantern on Him

According to Frank Silva's own plaint for a divorce from Lucy M. Silva, filed this forenoon in the superior court, his wife not only was intimate with one Tony Souza at a house at the corner of Lincoln avenue and High street, Alameda, and with George Jennings at a bawdhouse on San Leandro street, Alameda, but also beat him all kinds of physical abuse. On one occasion, it is alleged, his wife struck him with a heavy lantern, cutting his knee and causing blood poisoning.

Accusing her husband of habitual intemperance, failure to provide and willful desertion and abandonment, Adela Brand this forenoon instituted suit in the superior court for a divorce from Albert Brand. The couple was married in Oakland in July, 1907, and the defendant is a watchman.

AMERICAN FLAG OVER 2 CONTINENTS ARMENIAN PRIEST AFTER ROOSEVELT

Harry Sully of Berkeley Makes Sweeping Prediction at Luncheon.

"From the Canadian line to Cape Horn the American flag will fly. You've got to do this; you might as well look the fact in the face now. In a few years the United States will be in the same position as England was at the beginning of the Boer war."

This was uttered by Harry Sully of Berkeley at the Tri-City Rotary Club luncheon at the Key Club restaurant. Sully made the declaration during a short address which he delivered on the 7th and 8th of August at Kipling's. During the course of his address he read several of Kipling's poems.

The statement regarding the American flag flying over South America within a few years was taken up by his listeners to the effect that as England had been forced to stop the pugnacious wars and revolutions of small so-called republics, the United States would be forced to do the same. With the result that that portion of the Western Hemisphere, west of the Canadian line, to Cape Horn, would be under the jurisdiction of the United States government.

Rev. William C. Poole, assistant pastor of the First Methodist church, also spoke on Kipling, and praised him for his vitality and veracity.

Robert Robertson was the third speaker, and he also commended Kipling and his works.

RICH WIDOW MARRIES MAN WHO QUIT SMOKING

Eastern Couple Wed After 3 Days' Courtship in Oakland.

MET HERE FOLLOWING LONG CORRESPONDENCE

The Bridegroom Insisted Wife Should Make Will With Himself as Beneficiary.

"I want a man who does not smoke," said Mrs. A. M. Atwood, a wealthy widow of New York, when she met R. H. Foster of Dalton, Massachusetts, for the first time at the Hotel Metropole last Sunday following a prolonged correspondence which had as its object matrimony. Foster immediately abandoned the weed for three whole days.

A strenuous courtship was carried on during the following days, terminating this morning when the couple arose early and went to San Rafael, where they had the nuptial knot tied. Following the ceremony, they left on their honeymoon, going to Santa Cruz, where they expect to spend several weeks bathing in the sun and strolling along the scenic paths that wind about the cliff adjacent to the resort.

Foster is a man slightly past middle age, as is his wife also, having somewhat over the agreements of the match with the result that at the last moment there threatened to be a breach in the negotiations.

WANTED WILL MADE.

Mrs. Atwood paid the expenses of the courtship, including hotel bills and sundry other items, and Foster requested she should have a will drawn up providing for him in case of her demise and suggest $25,000 as the amount to be named. This she finally agreed to.

The pair made no effort to hide their intentions from the clerk and other attaches of the hotel, who assisted them in various ways to affect a settlement.

When they left the hotel at noon today they carried with them four trunks and six suit cases, avowing their intention of travelling until they became sufficiently well acquainted to settle down in some quiet place and prove to the skeptical that marriage through correspondence is not a failure after all.

HUNDREDS FACE TERRIBLE DEATH

Forest Fires Imprison Homeless Refugees; Escape Cut Off.

MERCILL, Wis., July 21.—Several hundred persons of Bloomville and McNamee were hemmed in by forest fires at the former town with seemingly no means of escape.

The fires have destroyed the railroad tracks for some distance between Bloomville and Merrill, making it impossible for the inhabitants of the village to get refuge in Merrill. The 400 inhabitants of McNamein fled to Bloomville, only to be confronted by similar perils.

George, north of Bloomville, is isolated by the fire and it has been impossible to get word from there for several hours.

This day, Bloomville with its 500 persons, hemmed in every side.

The loss in buildings is more than $200,000. Several farmers' families have not been accounted for.

LARGE ACREAGE BURNED.

MISSOURI, Mont., July 21.—Forest fires are raging today on the Cabinet Mountain range, 30 miles from Missoula, a huge acreage has been burned over.

Latest reports indicate dire needs of assistance, as the flames are spreading rapidly.

At noon today an urgent call for assistance was received at the forestry office, the interpreter placed his surname, Jee Jee, as the English name of the Chinese custom, using the Jee as the last name. He is survived by his widow Chung Sheo, by his sons Linford and Moan, Luther McLean, Ishenaw, Benoy and Howard Jee, and a daughter, Miss Mae Jee. Luther Jee, who took a master's degree at Harvard, is at present vice-president of the Gangshan Engineering and Mining College in North China and fills the chair of Economic in the same institution.

FIGHTING THE FLAMES.

The Northern Pacific Railroad has every available man fighting the flames. The property at Paradise, at Cedar Creek, the ranches, has been swept an area of three square miles.

Other discouraging reports are reaching us from Riviera, to which forests were destroyed yesterday.

At Henderson on the Lolo forest the fires are reported under control after a week of fighting.

London Mortgages Residence Property

To secure a loan made by the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank of Hayward Jack Leland and his wife Charmon last evening filed with County Recorder Mott a mortgage on their residence property in the 20th side of Twenty-seventh street, east of Telegraph street.

The wife, a widow, is the sole owner of the property, and the entire entertainment is designed to please and instruct the audience.

A great success of similar lectures in eastern cities, and of the ones given in Europe by this society a few weeks ago, indicate the interest taken in them by the public.

DENIS'S SISTER WAS WIFE

SAN FRANCISCO July 1.—This city took a hand in her puzzle that assumed national proportions through the efforts of Chicago to show that the woman who had lied to her, tempted prince and seduced king, was the wife of a man who was a member of New York's Hoboken and Park, who at one time was married to a man of Ward McAllister.

Alma denis, Young is in San Fran and was found last night. He denied that the woman shot in Chicago was ever his wife or a late addition to his family. When shown the old post cards Young was at present engaged in magazine writing.

There is certainly some error in respect to the report that the woman in question in Chicago was his wife. That seems to be some strong evidence about the facts as to whether the duchess. The woman in question was not in fact his wife. It seems she was a friend of Ward McAllister. She is much older than the woman described in the post cards. It is not known what became of Ward McAllister.

Young is in San Fran and was divorced in 1902.

His prophecy fulfilled

Shortly after his election to the Presidency, Theodore Roosevelt visited Oakland. In a letter written in Oakland at that time to a friend in Washington he said: "Oakland is a city just across the bay from San Francisco where one finds the soft air of Italy and the beauty of English villages combined with a spirit of Western Progress and commercial advantages which will some day far surpass me. I am often judge from my limited means that on my deathbed greatest railroad terminal on the Pacific Coast."

THE great railroads terminating in Oakland have authorized expenditures aggregating $22,000,000 for Oakland traffic and terminal facilities. The city has planned to improve her twenty-seven miles of water front by plans big reforms in Prison System an expenditure of $25,000,000. Splendid manufacturing sites with rail and water transportation are still available at low figures. The climate is ideal and the residential advantages for employer and employee unsurpassed. Oakland is indeed a bustling, beautiful city of thousands of opportunities and romance. TRIBUNE'S DOUBLE PAGE OF

JACK JOHNSON WANTS TO BE SPEED BURNER IN THE AUTO

Deadly and Woodman Are Still Looking for That Forfeit Money

JACK JOHNSON PLANNING TO ENTER AUTO RACES

Colored Boxer Has the Buzz Wagon Ambition to Break Records; Deadly Still After Graney

By EDDIE SMITH.

THIS morning's mail brought a letter from John Arthur Johnson. We expected this letter and rather thought we would know the message before opening the envelope—it was fully expected that the front piece of the letter holder would bear the picture of the fighter and the words, "World's Champion." In this we were mistaken. The letter was sent from a New York hotel and there was not the least display of gaudiness. Like Battling Nelson, the colored man overlooked the fact that we are mostly interested in his boxing career and not his personal affairs. The letter contained mostly information regarding the receptions that he had received and how much money he would make during the next year, and how nicely the white people had treated him, and last but by no means least, in point of interest to the champion, comes the information that the only way the automobile racers can keep him out of some of the big events that will be held in the east soon will be to draw the color line. Johnson seems determined to enter the field of auto racers, and he will never be happy until he either wins a race or has some of the drivers of world renown show him up. Jack is saturated with the idea that he can drive an automobile as fast as any man living, and our experience with a few spins in his car leads us to believe that Johnson would be a hard man to beat if he had a machine of equal speed capability in a race with the best of them. Never before has a colored man tried to enter a race of this kind, and just how the men who earn their living in this dare-devil manner would look upon the advancement of the black race in their game is yet to be determined. It is no ped for the sake of settling Johnson's crave for the speeding of an automobile that the racers will allow him to enter the Vanderbilt race to be held at New York soon. The best drivers in the world enter this race and if allowed to start Johnson would have all the fun he is looking for.

JOHNSON WILL TRY TO ENTER AUTO RACES

Jack informs us that he will make every effort to enter the big races and says that he will return to his machine if he is beaten. At first it was suggested that the spot is outside the jurisdiction of the referee. This idea did not suit Graney, so at last he agreed to leave it to Matt Larkin. The managers of the race stated that they asked what he thought of the claim. Graney hasn't a leg to stand on, said Larkin, he must pay you the money. When the Larkin answer was taken back to the officer, hit him McIntosh said that he should not have agreed or sat down because he knew just how Matt would decide because he had already talked with him.

The set managers in the air again and they are still trying to collect the money they have coming from a man who was supposed to be a sport.

KLINE AND BAKER MAY GO TO LONDON

Domen Kline is contemplating taking Harry Baker to London in the near future, and if the pair are successful in the interests that Baker will be sure to get here very soon, continuing their way round the world. Baker would do well in England for he is just the sort of boxer the British like to see. The fact that Baker once hosted Johnnie Summers would give him a good reception on the other side, and the two fighters will be sure to scratch iron. Letter 11 is due over the limit now. The tall is reported to be better than the short, and the runners in the air opportunity for a race in their strength during the first part of the tour.

The Irish-American is the favorite to win the title, and the English boxer is the real king pin of all the boxers of the world known.

Johnnie Jeffries did the best he could, but that night, priced too big a hand cap. The old pup doesn't live up to the name of the white man's decent to the fighter either, he is confident that the Jack Johnson who boxed Jeffries at Reed could have beaten him at any time in his life. He continues to say that it would have taken a little longer, but that it would have been a great day if he had won.

The San Francisco boxing fans will not stop talking about the failure of Eddie Grimes to pay Bob Deeds and Joe Woodman the forfeit money that they had fully paid coming from the Montreal fan club. Eddie claims the money was given for a match. I now appear that Grimes is in conversation with Deeds and Woodman to entice the managers, but they did not have the money ready.

Of course this was a ridiculous argument and the only one that the alleged stakeholder could make. After some talk it was suggested that as proof of the hit collect the money had

FAKER PAPKE LOOMS UP AGAIN

In Papke are offered an offer to fight Stu Kiel. The offer came from Deeds and the contest is to be staged in the coming month. Papke is at least a row for his money, and he is not the only one who wants to see this boxer.

IDITAROD PROVING DISAPPOINTMENTREPUBLICAN CLUB TO HOLD SMOKER

The Output Will Not Run More Than $200,000 in This Season.

SEATTLE July 21.—Suffering from a fever which has caused the output of the Iditarod Trail to run not even to $200,000, certainly not enough to support the 1,000 men now there, said B. G. Leader, General Manager P. M. M. commander of the department of Columbia upon his return yesterday from a tour of inspection of Alaska all posts included a special trip to the new gold field.

Some members of supervising the rush to this goldfield should be dismissed. General M. A. for there is bound to be much suffering. As we came down from the camp we met many men going in and only a few of them were men. The men are exposing a great deal of work for the miners. They are bound to be responsible for this.

so far that the country is won on Flat Creek. Low creeks and these are small gulches for streams. There must be now nearly 1,000 men scattered around the vicinity.

The water is very rough and bad streams are many. The old trail river is one of the most crooked in the world. Runners will result in a loss up there and hurt the legitimate development of the territory.

Alaska has now reached the point where it is a case of big development projects. The day for the small miner is over because there are no more later than a man can get rich by a little sea of

MOST FASTIDIOUS SMOKERS IN THIS CITY BUY CUT RATE CIGARS OF OSGOOD

Druggist Says That Men Who Watch the Pennies Are the Ones Who Watch the Quality; Working Up Big Patronage Among the Men Who Know Tobacco Quality.

You know I believe the most particular smokers in Oakland in my list of customers are the ones who buy the cut rate. And tell me why? You see the man whoognes for the advantages of smoking and a half cent in every cigar is generally a man who is particular about little things. This is the man who looks for quality in his烟。 He likes to smoke his cigars and the one who carefully watches the tobacco carefully takes his cigar shapes and sizes in the烟.

smokers I cater to. Why? I even have special boxes for some of my most particular customers which I keep especially for them because they are so exacting with them.

Furthermore, one who buys Osgood's has received compliments by the hundred and actually hear more about the grade of cigar I sell than about the cut rate prices. I am referring to the man in business with me who know good cigars and who are not in the line of this kind of trade.

The day for the particular吸烟者 is over because the day for the small miner is over.

He is big business if he is a staple such as Belmonts, Optic, El Sabor etc. and keeps up a fresh, carefully selected stock.

He also sells Osgood's cigarettes, which are very popular.

He has a private brand called "Cut" that he sells for a nickel a pack.

A word truly fine smoke. In fact, it is really a 10 cent cigar that he has tried to popularize his report.

His cigar departments are right at the entrance of each of his two big stores one at 12th and Washington and the other at 7th and Broadway.

It is Osgood's best cigar.

When I first began to write about rates, everyone thought that I was selling too low. I explained that I had a very large number of烟 smokers who buy Osgood's.

It was extremely difficult to get them to understand that the烟 smokers are not烟 smokers.
